

1822 JOHN V. VREDENBURGH

MARRIED: At Locust Grove, near Schenectady, on Tuesday evening, by the Rev. Mr. Proal, Mr. John V. Vredenburg, merchant of Norwalk, Ohio, to Miss Marianna Schuyler, daughter of the late Harmanus P. Schuyler, of the former place.

Albany Gazette
October 11, 1825 (Tuesday)

List of merchants trading in the county of Huron (Ohio), on the first day of April, A. D., 1826, with amount of capital:

Cyrus Butler, Norwalk	$5,000
Enos Gilbert "	50
Joseph Strong, Jr. "	1,500
J. V. Vredenburg "	3,000.

Dated June 1, 1826. Geo. Sheffield,
County Assessor.

List for 1828	John V. Vredenburg, Norwalk	$1,500.
List for 1829	John V. Vredenburg, Norwalk	1,000.
List for 1830	John V. Vredenburg, appears in the list for Florence, Capital	$ 600.
List for 1831	John V. Vredenburg, Florence	$ 700.

History of the Firelands, comprising Huron and Erie counties, Ohio. p. 138
W.W. Williams
1879.

John V. Vredenburg received 30 votes for Recorder against 37 votes for his opponent, Leverett Bradley in 1828 (first corporate election).

p. 139

June 20, 1860, Caleb Hathaway Gallup, graduate of Madison University at Hamilton, N. Y., married Kate M., daughter of John V. and Mary S. Vredenburg, then of Peru, Huron Co., Ohio. She died May 25, 1863.

The issue of that marriage was one son, Richard Carroll, born September 2, 1861, at the Peru farm. p. 181.

History of the Fire Lands comprising Huron and Erie counties, Ohio.
W.W. Williams
1879.

JOHN VREDENBURGH, 1822, of Schenectady, N.Y., was a member of the Philomathean Society.

Philomathean Catalogue 1830